

Building Bricks Board Game – Addition and Subtraction

Learning outcome: I can recognise numerals and add/subtract the correct amount from a collection.

Instructions:

Each player starts with five building bricks. Take turns to roll the dice and move your game piece that number of spaces. Look at the number and operation shown on the space. Add or subtract that number of blocks to or from your brick tower. The player with the biggest tower at the end wins!

